

A6. Public Submission Template (Evidence-Based)

Effective Date Reference: January 09, 2026

Universal Terms (Applies to This Template)

Mandatory Disclaimer

“This is a voluntary standards document based solely on publicly available materials; it is not legal advice, not a regulatory determination, and not investment advice.”

Data, Privacy & Security Notice (Summary)

SSA collects the information you submit to evaluate participation eligibility (A1/A2) or to review evidence-based submissions (A6). SSA will store submissions securely and retain them as needed for auditability, corrections, and historical recordkeeping. SSA may publish limited information for transparency (e.g., member names/affiliations and high-level COI summaries), but will not publish personal contact details except with your consent. You may request correction of your personal data. If you choose to submit anonymously, SSA may be unable to follow up. Do not submit non-public, confidential, stolen, or security-sensitive exploit details; use Responsible Disclosure instructions below where applicable.

IP & License (Summary)

By submitting materials, you grant SSA a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to reproduce, store, archive, translate, excerpt, and publish your submission (in whole or in part) in SSA outputs and archives, with reasonable attribution unless you request anonymity or SSA determines anonymization is necessary for safety or fairness. You represent you have the right to grant this license.

Public-Facing Communications

Participation in, or submission to, SSA must not be represented as governmental approval, regulatory-equivalent endorsement, or certification. SSA outputs are evidence-based summaries of publicly available information and are not adjudications of legality or compliance.

Submission email: submissions@FedSSA.org

Optional anonymity: You may omit identity fields, but SSA may be unable to follow up.

Public input is for evidence submission and correction, not sentiment polling. Submissions must cite publicly verifiable sources or links that can be verified.

Section 1 — Submitter Information (optional, but helps follow-up)

Name / organization (optional)
Email (recommended)
Role / affiliation (optional)

Section 2 — Submission Type & Scope Gate

Select ONE primary type:

- Correction to an SSA publication (identify exact statement and provide public source)
- Clarification request (conflicting public information)
- New evidence/source relevant to a baseline item
- Other (explain): _____

Confirm scope (submissions may be rejected if unchecked):

- My submission relates to SSA domains: Disclosure, Redemption, and/or Governance.
- I provide publicly accessible sources (URLs/citations) sufficient to verify the claim.
- My submission is not advertising, market promotion, or purely opinion without evidence.

Section 3 — Claim, Target, and Requested Action

Reasoning (2–5 sentences):

Optional: known conflicting public information or uncertainty:

Section 5 — Security-Sensitive Submissions (Responsible Disclosure)

If your submission could enable exploitation (e.g., wallet/key compromise, redemption bypass, reserve access, privileged system attack), minimize technical exploit details in this channel.

Is this security-sensitive?	<input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Yes
------------------------------------	--

If yes, has this been reported to the affected project/entity?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Not applicable
Safe summary (non-exploitative)

Section 6 — Attestations (required)

- I attest the cited materials are publicly available and lawfully accessible (not leaked, stolen, or confidentiality-breaching).
- I attest my submission is limited to evidence-based factual claims; I do not impute motives or assert criminal/illegal conduct absent controlling legal determinations.
- I understand SSA may consolidate duplicates, reject submissions lacking evidence, rate-limit repetitive non-evidentiary filings, and edit/aggregate for publication.
- I understand SSA will acknowledge submissions where feasible and may assign a status: Accepted (Evidence Verified), Needs More Evidence, Rejected (Insufficient Evidence), or Deferred (Out of Scope / Security-Sensitive / Pending Clarification).

Section 7 — Attribution Preference & Signature (optional)
